Ralph R. Rule Saved By Governor Reagan

'Greatest Incident of the Week,' Says
Governor; Except For Dog Fight Earlier

Shore Spectators Told Wife, Kay, That If He Doesn't Come Up In Three Minutes, He's Gone

Many a man and woman in "Death Row" have waited to be "Saved by the Governor," but never a Councilman and former Mayor of Sierra Madre! Councilman and former Mayor Ralph R. Rule was not actually waiting to be saved by the Governor, but he was, and now, according to legend he owes his life to no other than Republican Governor Ronald Reagan.

The true story goes something like this. Seems that Councilman Ralph R. Rule and Doctor William Meisenheimer were at the Trancas Beach north of Malibu on Sunday of this week and were attempting to launch a boat in the surf, and as Ralph puts it, the surf was just too strong for the both of them, and it turned the boat over atop of Ralph.

Although Ralph was not a witness to the commotion on the outside of the boat, he claims that he was under the water for one or one and a half minutes, but the one that pulled him out from under the boat was Governor Ronald Reagan, who had with him a Secret Service Officer.

"Seriously," Ralph says, "I definitely owe my life to Governor Reagan. I would never have made it without his quick thinking and action. I shall support him when he runs again in 1970."

The True Story

Former Mayor Ralph Rule and Dr. William E. Meisenheimer, 2065 Lilliano Drive, were involved in a unique boating accident on Sunday, August 17 that saw Governor Ronald Reagan take part in turning what might have been a tragedy into an adventure with a happy ending.

The accident occurred Sunday afternoon at Dr. Meisenheimer's beachfront home on Trancas Beach north of Malibu. Dr. Meisenheimer and Councilman Rule were launching the Doctor's Catamaran in rather high surf although a half a dozen or more launches had been made earlier without incident.

"Bill, (Dr. Meisenheimer) and I had gotten through one high wave and when we were about 100 yards from shore, the first of a double set of high waves hit the catamaran and it turned it on its side," Rule reported, "and while we were in the water trying to right the boat, the second extremely large wave struck the catamaran broadside, breaking off the mast, tearing the sail loose and capsizing the vessel."

"I was caught directly under the center section of the boat and was unable to free myself from the mast and sail as the life jacket I was wearing held me under the boat. Pieces of the mast struck me on the head and body but I did not lose consciousness at any time."

Governor Reagan, who was sitting on the beach, observed the boat tipping over and only one person coming to the surface and he was the first person to reach the boat and, along with other residents of the beach area, was successful in righting the boat and he was able to come ashore under his own power.

"I am certain that I was not under the water more than 45 seconds or perhaps a minute but it seemed a lot longer as I had to hold my breath and try to maneuver my way out from under the boat," Rule continued. "The first person I saw was the Governor and I recall telling him that he had just gotten himself another vote."

Ralph had a very interesting afternoon with the Governor who said that this was the greatest incident of the week, the other being a dog fight earlier in the week.

Meeting By Motorede Successful

Remarks by those that seem to know what they were talking about sounded thusly, "Never saw such a big crowd at Sierra Mesa Cafetorium," and "This is the first time the Cafetorium was full to overflow during my employment here." Thus set the stage for one of the most successful meetings ever held in Sierra Madre on Narcotics. Concerned parents, teenagers, businessmen and adults were present to hear Detective William Kent, of the Sierra Madre Police Department, tell the downfall of those that submit to any of the dangerous drugs. Films were shown that brought the message home to those in attendance.

The meeting was sponsored by the Foothill Committee of The Movement To Restore Decency in cooperation with the Sierra Madre Police Department.

Swim Team Takes 4th

Led by the 12 year old Adrienne John with three first places and two new L.A. County records, the Sierra Madre Swim Team took third place in the girls division with 111 points and combined with the boys seventh place finish with 49 points, finished fourth behind El Monte, Culver City, and La Mirada respectively.

Miss John set new records in the 50 meter freestyle by 1.2 seconds and with her teammates in the 200 meter freestyle relay by more than 10 seconds. The same relay team of Miss John, Cyndy Scott, Pam Myers and Judy Myers also took first place in the 200 meters medley relay.

Other female swimmers and their places were: Cyndy Scott 2nd in backstroke, Judy Myers 3rd in butterfly, Leigh Jacobsen 2nd in 13-14 breaststroke, Jenny Jacobson 1st in 15-17 breaststroke, Tricia Myers 1st in 15-17 butterfly, Melinda Starkweather 1st in 15-17 backstroke. Relays finished 15-17 girls medley relay 3rd, and 2nd in freestyle.

The boys were led by 12 year old Paul Pfleger with a strong second place in 50 meter freestyle breaking the old record but losing credit for it by .1 of a second to the first place finisher. He also anchored the freestyle relay to second place and the medley relay to third place.

Other finishers were: Ed Rogers with a third in boys 1-12 butterfly, and the boys

S&R Team Brings Back 4 Juveniles

Four young Arcadians were returned safely to their parents Friday night by the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team, after "literally hanging on for life" for over two hours on a ledge 300 feet above Wilderness Park in Arcadia.

Kenny White, 7½; Nan Stubler, 8; Bruce Cook, 7, and Patti Cook, 14, all residing on South First Avenue in Arcadia, had decided to go for a hike in the Wilderness Park area and Mrs. Cook left the youngsters there at 1 p.m. They then crawled under the park boundary fence and started up a steep gully, planning to gain the top of the ridge and hike down the other side.

Half way up, they became stranded and two boys playing in the park heard their cries for help at 3:45 p.m. They then notified the park caretakers who called the Arcadia Police Department who in turn called out the Rescue Team. It was later determined that the victims were stranded in City of Monrovia territory, so Sgt. John Mills assumed direction of the rescue for the Monrovia Police Department.

Eleven members of the SMSR Team responded to the call, and worked their way up the steep ridge, and found the youngsters hanging on to the mountain with their fingers, as the decomposed granite was not giving much support for the feet. Rescuers then secured the victims by tying them into the climbing ropes.

Two of the children had improper footwear, so two of the rescuers removed their

Policy, Priorities, Regulations Of New Community Center Officially Adopted

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is part 1 of two articles dealing with the Policy recommended by the Parks and Recreation Commission to the City Council on the use and fees to be charged for the new Community Recreation Center to be opened sometime next month. The Policy and fees were adopted by the City Council at its meeting of Tuesday, August 12.

General Provisions

The Parks and Recreation facilities in the City of Sierra Madre were constructed and developed primarily for recreation activities of the City Parks and Recreation programs. Therefore, the activities of the Parks and Recreation Department shall have preference over all prior scheduling. Furthermore, the Parks and Recreation facilities may be made available for purposes other than Parks and Recreation Department sponsored activities only when they are not needed for Department purposes or functions.

Must Abide By Court Decisions

Dist. Attorney Younger Reviews Court Decisions

Criminal trials are no longer regarded as an arena where the critical issue is the guilt or innocence of the defendant," Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger recently told members of the Select Committee on Crime of the House of Representatives in Washington, D. C.

Testifying before the committee, Younger added, "the trial courtroom is now a prologue to appeal. It is that first stage necessary for seemingly endless appellate review."

He attributed "a substantial portion of the congestion in state courts and lack of finality of state court judgments" to the willingness of federal courts to review state court judgments, and then offered three "possible solutions."

The Los Angeles County prosecutor, who is also chairman of President Nixon's Task Force on Crime and Law and Order, suggested "a self-imposed discipline by the federal courts themselves to discourage repeated applications for collateral attack on judgments finalized by state appellate courts."

Younger also recommended "adoption of federal legislation to substantially limit the power of federal courts to relitigate state court judgments."

The final suggestion made by the Los Angeles County district attorney was for a "reconsideration of the present system whereby a 5 to

Fair Dates Set For Senior Citizens As Monday, Sept. 15

Monday, September 15, will be Senior Citizens Day at the Los Angeles County Fair, it was announced today by John T. Walker, director of the county Department of Senior Citizens Affairs which coordinates the event.

Members of recognized senior citizen groups and any individual over 62 years of age will be eligible for reduced admission of 75 cents, half the standard price.

In addition to the regular fair attractions, a special afternoon program in the amphitheatre will feature free entertainment, audience participation events and drawings for prizes.

The evening grandstand show, featuring the National Ballet of Mexico, will have a section set aside for senior citizens' seating.

Tram tour fares will be reduced to 15 cents.

More than 9,000 persons took part in Senior Citizen Day at the fair last year. The program is sponsored annually by the Department of Senior Citizens Affairs, the Senior Citizens Association of Los Angeles County, the county Parks and Recreation Department and the City of Los Angeles Recreation and Parks Department.

Individuals or clubs can order their tickets in advance by writing to Los Angeles County Fair, P.O. Box 2250, Pomona, Calif. 91766. They should be sure to specify the number of tickets desired and include 75 cents for each, either by check or money order. No cash will be accepted and no refunds will be made on tickets purchased.

boots and placed them on the two victim's feet. The rescuers, with the victims, then traversed across the gully to the ridge line and escorted the victims to the canyon bottom. The total time from the arrival of the rescuers at Wilderness until the victims were at base camp was a little over two hours. Temperatures on the side of the mountain were 110 degrees plus, and both victims and rescuers found cold fruit juice waiting for them at the base camp.

The youngsters were then transported to the Monrovia Police Department where their parents were waiting for them.

On Saturday, April 16th, 8 members of the Search and Rescue Team were flown to Lookout Point in Little Santa Anita Canyon by the Los Angeles County Fire Department Bell 204 helicopter for the purpose of stocking the Little Santa Anita stream with German brown trout fingerlings. Over 500 fish were stocked in the six hour planting mission. The fish were supplied by the California Department of Fish and Game from the Fillmore Hatchery, at the request of the Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Department.

The Fire Department helicopter was able to be used to transport the team members as the County Fire Department is also the County Fish and Game Warden Division. Next spring there will be good fishing for those who will be hardy enough to take the three mile hike back into the stream area.

You and Your Neighbor

The Rev. Mark Trotter, his wife Jean and their four children, Martha (8), John (7), Phillip (4) and Amy (2) returned the beginning of this month from a two weeks vacation at Jean's father's cabin in Petrolia, (That's south of Eureka.) Fishing and admiring the beautiful, peaceful scenery seemed to take up most of the time. All are ready to return at the first suggestion.

The big yearly family reunion that Raymond and Elise Rickman attended at Micke Grove was an even bigger success than last year. In fact, each year seems to get better. Attendance at the 1969 gathering was about 75, with four generations present. The reunion was started by Elise's mother's people in memory of her grandparents. There are only two of the grandparents' children living, (Elise's Aunts) Mrs. Ray M. Beere and Mrs. William F. Krause, both of Stockton, and while in their seventies they were also at the reunion. The Rickmans were lucky. Just four days before the family gathering the weather in that area had been most uncomfortable, heat-wise, but for the reunion the unreliable weather was just right. From Micke Grove, Ray and Elise drove on up to Fort Bragg, Eureka and then home. En caravan with them the whole trip were daughter Sharon and her husband Douglas Oliver and their two girls. All enjoyed the vacation and the reunion very much and look forward to a repeat performance next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard (Shirley) Hall of W. Montecito recently returned from Winnipeg, Ontario, Canada, where they spent two weeks visiting an aunt and uncle. Surely does sound like a nice vacation.

Mr. & Mrs. Coulson, III Honeymoon In San Francisco and Bahamas

MRS. WILLIAM H. COULSON, III
... Nee Judy Lynne Smith

Sierra Madiran William H. Coulson, III claimed as his bride Miss Judy Lynne Smith in afternoon rites on August 2 in the church of St. Edwards Episcopal in San Jose with the Rev. West L. Davis officiating. Mr. Coulson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Coulson, Jr., of 195 Canon Drive and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Smith, Sr. of San Jose.

For her wedding, the bride chose a full length gown of modified empire design of white silk organza and re-embroidered chantilly lace, styled with a Victorian neckline, bishop sleeves and detachable chapel train. A Camelot-cap of matching lace and pearls held secure a train-length silk illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of orchids, stephanotis and white and pink roses.

Mrs. Thomas Foster, as matron of honor, wore a gown of pink chiffon over linen. The A-line creation was trimmed with daisies. Gowns of bridesmaids were of the same design except they were executed in baby pink chiffon. Other bridal attendants were: Jill Smith, sister of the bride; Christina Coulson, sister of the groom; JoEden Zienke of San Jose, sorority sister of the bride; and Chryssa MacCutcheon of Fullerton, college friend of the bride. For bouquets, they all carried nosegays of mixed spring flowers.

Mr. William H. Coulson, Jr. served as his son's best man and acting as ushers were: Mr. William Lee of Monterey Park; Mr. William R. Smith, Jr., of San Jose, brother of the bride; Mr. D. Terry Swarts of Clairmont; and Mr. Rick Morse of Arcadia, cousin of the groom.

Serving as ring bearer was brother of the bride, Brian Smith and flower girl was Kelly Matalone of Encino, a friend of the family. Soloist, Mrs. Jack Lingafelter of San Jose sang the story of "Ruth and Naomi" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception for 200 guests, in the form of a sitdown dinner at Moffett Field Officers' Club took place immediately following the ceremony. Special guests at the wedding and dinner were the respective grandmothers of the bridal couple, Mrs. Hedvig B. Smith of Vancouver, Washington and Mrs. Mary Kehr of Sierra

Fall Swim Program Announced

The Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Department announced that they will conduct a complete swim program during the fall beginning in September. The program will include Adult Lessons, Life Saving, Tiny Tot Lessons, Beginner's Lessons, Women's Slim and Swim Program, Swim Team and recreation swimming on weekends. Registration and information on the above programs as to dates, times and fees can be obtained at the Municipal Pool at Sierra Vista Park. For information call 355-7275.

A family reunion picnic type gathering was held by the Joseph (Margaret) Theis family this last Sunday in Sierra Vista Park. Three of the Theis children were present and seven of their grandchildren which all made for a happy day. There were Jerry and Anita Theis of La Canada and their two little girls, Pam and Deryl; Jim and Nancy Theis of Altadena and their five children, Trina, Tracy, Thomasine, Jim, Jr. and Jerry; and Dr. Joseph Theis, Jr. of Sierra Madre. Two anniversaries were also celebrated — Joe and Margaret's 39th wedding anniversary, which fell on August 20 and Jerry and Anita's 10th wedding anniversary which is on August 25. Congratulations and best wishes to all.

CASTAWAY — So you have your eye on Lot 16, Tract 27459. Lots of luck; be kinda hard to find, don't you think? Oh, you are also looking at the Willis Tract, not bad. Better give the Lannon Debris Basin another gander. You have not asked the Council as yet; it would be worth a try — PERCY

TAXPAYER — SAM will not let you down; we will be in there with facts and figures to show why 99c is unreasonable after the 40c. You will be the one that casts the ballot and this time it will be 50-50, or the 49.99 per cent the loser. Don't stay home on this one — SAM

ACE-IN-THE-HOLE — Yep, you were right all along; "Happy Jack" is a character, and one to be watched. He could be the snitch I cannot control the duce much longer, he and the 7 of Clubs are ready to move in — CUT THROAT

SOUPS on the rug that is, clean with Blue Lustre. Rent electric shampooer $1 at Arnold's Hardware and Gift Store, 297 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Telephone 355-3365 and always ask for BOB

ALBERT — I have held tight for three months; will hold on a little longer. I must have my pound of flesh after the treatment I have received and I am depending on you to pull the chestnuts out of the fire — MARIETTA

GLORIA — I must confess. I sent 4 shirts to another cleaners and laundry. . . You guessed it the price was $1.56 and the wrinkles were astounding. Same day sent 4 to Vogue Cleaners and Laundry, the price of course was 99c and perfect workmanship. I just had to see to believe. I would not trust Harry's suit to anyone else, can't even take a chance to compare, he is gloriously happy at 99c. Hey! only a couple more weeks for those blankets, cleaned, mothproofed and in Cedarized Poly bags for 99c, better not miss this one. Throw in your electric too, the price is right at $2.49. Remember for First Class Craftsmanship it's Vogue Cleaners and Laundry and the address is 370 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. If his family was not on Welfare he couldn't keep the place open — SUSIE Q

CLARA BELL — If you want a direct answer to the problem, then go see a doctor, he can give you the answer, quick, smooth and indifferent, just send me the bill — SLAP HAPPY

SERUTAN — Head for the hills, things are getting rougher and rougher, best to lay low until after school starts, attentions will then be concentrated in other areas. Will not contact you until sometime around September 18 — ML

RUDOLPH — Were you dreaming when you asked about a Referendum against the zoning? You would find that 750 signatures would be easy to obtain; but the deadline is September 12. Someone must lead the way — SUPPORTER

DOUGHBOY — You have a way that I do not understand. If you will stand up and be counted, I can recognize you. I must know to what areas you are pointing and when you may want action — CIMMORON

JOHN HANCOCK — You can get things straight when you concentrate on them. Now put down the date of August 29, and react the same as you did on the 15th and everything will be in the bag — HAPPY

Neighbors

The Welcome To Sierra Madre Department . . . Mr. was held at 8:30 Tuesday and Mrs. Rene (Phyllis) Devigne have just moved to well, age 61 who passed our community from Pasadena Monday, August 18 in dena. Thoroughly in love the Sierra Madre Community with our town, the Devignes ity Hospital after but a brief can see Santa Anita Race- illness.

Living at 461 N. Sunny-on Acacia and just about side she came to this coun- try from Falkland Island, The concern over being able South America some 39 to see the Chalon Restau- rant is only natural — since Mr. Devigne is owner-oper- ator of the restaurant-night club located at 3768 East Colorado. There are two other Chalon Restaurants, one in Manchester and one in downtown Los Angeles. Be sure to see their ad in next week's issue of the News as Mr. Devigne is offering to all his new Sierra Madre neighbors a get-acquainted gift. A very nice gesture, indeed. Incidentally, we can speak from experience, the food is marvelous and the service exceptional- ly good. — ☆ —

Miss Leslie Jardine, daughter of Mrs. Jane Jar- dine, is spending the week visiting with friends in Sac- ramento. Ever since she left, the sounds of hammering, is the "tortonio," soft ice sawing and the like have been coming from the Jar- dine residence — Mother with hot fudge and topped and sister, Karin must be with whipped cream and al- hard at work on — whatmonds; a perfect mid-after- noon satisfier. Other choices yourself project! On the for ice cream lovers are other hand maybe this time chocolate and hot fudge they have become carried sundaes, and creamy milk away and when Leslie re- turns she will find the in- side of the house remodel- ed??? Well, anyway, every- one is enjoying the week. — ☆ —

Talk about dream vaca- tions . . . How about a month in St. Croix in the Virgin Islands?? Well, that's just where Mrs. George D. (Dorothea) Lil- ley and her daughter Dor- othy spent a month. Their 'excuse' was a visit to son- brother Rodney and his wife, Donnie and small daughter Tiffany, who make their home in St. Croix where Rodney is a Commer- cial Deep Sea Diver. Besides just enjoying life, swim- ming, boating and fishing, two family birthdays were celebrated together while there — Mrs. Lilley's on July 20 and Donnie's whose birthday was on August 15. This was a first time trip to the Virgin Islands for both Mrs. Lilley and Dorothy and from the sound of it, it sure- ly won't be their last visit. Just think — 86° water temperature, crystal clear blue water, swaying palms, white sands, clear skies . . . Mr. Lilley and Dorothy's twin sister, Georgina, who stayed home this trip are undoubtedly sorry that they did. Incidentally, Rodney also has a twin — Ian, who lives with his wife, Gladys and three children — Kimberly Ann, Christopher Ian and April Joy — in Kentucky. Dorothy and Georgina are students at PHS where they will be seniors this fall. — ☆ —

'Butch' Heasley was among 37 swimmers who at- tended the Junior and Sen- ior Life Saving Class at Sierra Vista Park this sum- mer. Butch graduated with flying colors and received his Senior Life Saving Cer- tificate. Congratulations and all that!

Services For Esther M. Bock

Funeral services for Mrs. Esther Martha Bock, 48, of 542 Sycamore Ave., Glen- dora, were conducted Tues- day, August 19 at 1 p.m. by Rose Hills Mortuary in Memorial Chapel with the Rev. G. R. Harris officiating. Interment followed in Rose Hills Memorial Park.

Mrs. Bock, a resident of this area for 30 years, was born in Michigan and died August 16 in Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasa- dena. She is survived by her husband, Walter E., son, W. Edmund Brock II of Glen- dora; daughter, Lenette Marie Brock of Glendora; brother, Alfred George Ah- rers, and five grandchil- dren.

PERSONALS are $1.25, check or cash enclosed. The Staff does not compose personals, unless in answer to one directed to them. Personals which obviously indi- cate collusion will be withheld and money returned if party identifies unpublished article. Personals are messages between two parties who, for unknown reasons have no other method of contact.

TAXPAYER — Cost of Per- sonals are $1.25, not 25c. Come in and pick up your two-bits or mail in the other $1 and your per- sonal will be published — PUBLISHER

VICTOR — Just heard about your dedication plaque idea for the Community Center; it's a scream. Do hope that you were not just talking through your hat, or that I was misin- formed; do hope it is true — MSL

Talk about dream vaca- tions . . . How about a month in St. Croix in the Virgin Islands?? Well, that's just where Mrs. George D. (Dorothea) Lil- ley and her daughter Dor- othy spent a month. Their 'excuse' was a visit to son- brother Rodney and his wife, Donnie and small daughter Tiffany, who make their home in St. Croix where Rodney is a Commer- cial Deep Sea Diver. Besides just enjoying life, swim- ming, boating and fishing, two family birthdays were celebrated together while there — Mrs. Lilley's on July 20 and Donnie's whose birthday was on August 15. This was a first time trip to the Virgin Islands for both Mrs. Lilley and Dorothy and from the sound of it, it sure- ly won't be their last visit. Just think — 86° water temperature, crystal clear blue water, swaying palms, white sands, clear skies . . . Mr. Lilley and Dorothy's twin sister, Georgina, who stayed home this trip are undoubtedly sorry that they did. Incidentally, Rodney also has a twin — Ian, who lives with his wife, Gladys and three children — Kimberly Ann, Christopher Ian and April Joy — in Kentucky. Dorothy and Georgina are students at PHS where they will be seniors this fall. — ☆ —

Pres. Nixon's Plans Given

President Nixon's new welfare proposal was hailed today by Supervisor Warren Dorn as "a new course of hope and incentive that can bring job opportunities to the people and yet save property owners millions of dollars."

Simultaneously, Dorn wired Governor Reagan and urged him to call a special session of the legislature to activate a bi-partisan tax reform plan which would lift from county property owners the burden of welfare programs.

The president's proposals provide for minimum incomes for poor families, particularly in situations where the father has left his wife and children because they could receive more money on welfare than he could earn.

"The current system encourages men and women to give up jobs. This same system has spawned a new breed whose only aspiration is to carry further the family's tradition of living on welfare."

"The President has recognized the colossal failure of these programs," added Dorn.

In the telegram to Reagan, Dorn said the President's "forthright action in seeking tax and welfare reforms spotlights the regrettable, inexcusable lack of action at the state level."

EX - ALTADENA Dick Williams is reportedly on the outs in Boston and may be canned at the end of the season despite the fact a year remains on his contract. Just shows how fleeting fame is. After capturing the pennant in 1967, Williams could have been voted mayor of Beantown. He might have blown his cool when he accused Yaz of loafing.

P.S. Bill Rigney is mentioned as a possible successor, but his name will pop up in darned near every town that doesn't win a division title.

JOHN MCGRAW was voted the All-Time Manager in the recent poll but I think Walter Alston was overlooked. The quiet man has won six pennants, four world's championships and has a 6-2 mark in All-Star tiffs. . . And just imagine, all this with 16 one-year contracts.

RECORD CROWDS have been showing up at Ascot Park lately. On Tuesday nights they have dune buggies and jeep races with actor Steve McQueen participating.

HUNCH BET . . . The St. Louis Cardinals to win the National League East division in a playoff with the Cubs. Teams have come from far back before. Remember the "Little Miracle of Coogan's Bluff"? That's the year the Giants came from 13½ off the pace after August 11 to nip the Dodgers on Bobby Thomson's homer.

In 1930, the Cardinals trailed another Dodger team by 11 games the first of August but won 40 out of their next 57 for the flag.

And in 1942, the Cards were counted out of the race as late as August 15 when they trailed Brooklyn by 9½, only to win 37 and lose but 6 down the stretch.

The precedent is there and the Cubbies will be hearing footsteps.

BOB COUSY, given a flowery introduction at a Cincy sports event, said: "If I had known he (the speaker) was going to eulogize me, I'd of done the decent thing and died for you."

ACCORDING TO THE GRAPEVINE there are a handful of top NBA stars playing out their options which means there is some real fire amidst the smoke of merger talk. Benefit
Ball Game

There will be scores of winners Tuesday (Aug. 26) night when the Los Angeles Dodgers and Montreal Expos clash in the 30th Annual Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation benefit baseball game at Dodger Stadium.

Regardless who wins on the field, Game Chairman Hal Halligan from the West Hollywood Kiwanis club declared, the real winners will be the hundreds of southland children who will gain urgently needed medical help and other services through Kiwanis in the months ahead.

In order for Kiwanis to gain the required funds, Halligan added, game tickets must be purchased through Kiwanis. Reserved seat tickets at regular stadium prices are still available from local area Kiwanis clubs, or by calling (213) 874-6550.

Some 150 southland Kiwanis clubs are participating in the event and each retains a share of its ticket sales for worthy youth projects in its own community.

Many of the youngsters being aided through the Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation of West Hollywood will be introduced and participate in colorful pre-game ceremonies at 7:30 p.m.

All Foundation cases most of which are handled at Orthopaedic Hospital, are continued until complete rehabilitation is achieved. And help is offered regardless of the child's race, color or creed. This benefit game is the program's chief source of income.

by JEANNETTE

EDITOR'S NOTE: When her children were young and full of questions, Jeannette Hosley found herself looking up the why fores of the food her children ate and asked questions about. She would write them down and after explaining them to the satisfaction of her children, filed them away for future questions. Now that her children are grown, she extracted them from the Hosley Archives and is sharing them with you in a weekly column.

It's salad time and what tastes better than a nice cool, crisp, green salad?

First we rub the bowl with Garlic, which is a flat-leaved onion of the lily family. It is now grown throughout the world, but was grown by the Greeks and Romans and is mentioned in the Bible.

Then for the greens.

Little do we realize when we pick up that head of lettuce, or the bunch of leaf lettuce or what is known as Bib lettuce that we are using something that once grew wild and was used by the Greeks and Persians at least as early as 500 B.C. We may add some Endive to our salad, which is a hardy annual or biennial herb of the daisy family. It is native to the East Indies and possibly to Sicily. It was known also to have been used by the Egyptians and Greeks.

We might include a few leaves of the Chinese Cabbage, which is of the mustard family, and has been cultivated for more than 1500 years in the Orient.

Just to be different and have every one wondering what that is in the salad that has large, round, grey-green, tender leaves with a very mild flavor. That would be Corn Salad, also known as lamb's lettuce. It is an annual native to Europe, North Africa and Asia Minor. It has been used as a salad green for centuries, but was not brought into the garden for cultivation until the sixteenth century.

For color we add Carrots and radishes. Carrots are now cultivated throughout the world, but are believed to have been cultivated by the Romans and Greeks, who describe red and yellow varieties. The Radish, a member of the mustard family and cousin to all the cabbage tribe, has a long history. Its origin may have been anywhere from Japan to the Mediterranean. Varieties of radishes have been grown for centuries in China and Japan. Also cultivated in ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome.

Some varieties without the familiar red root are still grown in some countries. One variety is grown in China for the oil in the seed. Egyptians grow a radish for its green tops. Another variety, the rat-tail, has edible seed pods which are pickled. Some varieties with enormous roots are cooked like turnips.

Celery, a member of the carrot family is another welcome addition to our salad. An obsolete name for celery is smallage. It is an annual or biennial marsh plant, native to Europe from Sweden, through Africa to Egypt, Abyssinia and India. Isolated specimens of wild celery have been found in California and New Zealand. It was not cultivated until the seventeenth century.

We should include a member of the gourd family, which is the Cucumber. It is thought to have originated in Asia and Egypt, but since it has been cultivated for more than 3,000 years its original habitat is not certain.

No green salad would be complete without the Love Apple, or as we call it, the Tomato. The tomato is a tropical herb, belonging to the nightshade family, native to South America. It was introduced from Africa

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

—And where we'll stop, who can know?

We do have the best educational system in the world. But what will your child think and want and demand once we've educated him?

For in our system—unlike the Russian—we impart truth rather than ideas. We give our children the tools of thought, not the party line.

Does your child know that the center of all truth is God? Does he measure his aims by Christian standards of faith and morality? Has he learned where unbridled human passions of greed and power and selfishness can lead? Does he respect the religious faith and spiritual opportunities which motivated American Liberty?

Nobody can brainwash an American family. But it's up to each American family to choose every Sunday between the "around and around," and the center of truth—GOD.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We give scholarships to

If their grades aren't too high.

It doesn't take much vision to give scholarships to A students. But what about the kids who didn't lead storybook lives? Kids with the potential but not the grades. Like the boy who spent his study time bagging groceries so he could buy some. Or the girl who gave up studies and dates to be the nearest thing to a mother her brothers and sisters will remember. Or the late starter who finally realized that stuff like geometry builds bridges and makes airplanes fly.

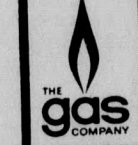

Someone ought to help these young people. And one someone is the Gas Company. We're not changing the world, but we do have a scholarship program for emerging students in Central and South Central Los Angeles and Compton. We help pay their way through school. And we offer them good paying summer jobs.

Of course the youngsters our scholarship board picks have to be college material. But we don't want any A students. Everyone else takes care of them. We're looking for something harder to find.

NOTICE OF

PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre will conduct a public hearing on Tuesday, September 9, 1969, in the City Council Chamber of City Hall, 55 West Sierra Madre Boulevard, Sierra Madre, California at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the hearing will be to hear testimony pertaining to the proposed exchange of a City parking lot located on the east side of the 100 block of South Baldwin Avenue for a new and fully developed parking lot of equal number of spaces on the southeast corner of Baldwin Avenue and Sierra Madre Boulevard. The legal description of each of these parcels is on file at City Hall for reference. If the Council determines that the proposed exchange is in the best interest of the City it may declare the existing City-owned lot no longer necessary for public purposes and that the same may be exchanged or sold under the Vehicle Parking District Act of 1943.

All persons wishing to address themselves to this subject are welcome to do so at the public hearing.

Policy, Priorities Regulations of Center

the Director of Parks and Recreation to be just cause. Failure to observe the rules and regulations may be cause for denial of future use of the facilities upon the recommendation of the Director of Parks and Recreation and action by the Parks and Recreation Commission.

Organizations or groups using the recreation facilities shall be responsible for any damage done to the facilities and/or equipment and/or furnishings and shall be liable for the expenses incurred in repairing or replacing the damaged property less the amount of any deposit for damage made by such organization in compliance with the regulation governing deposit.

Priority Of Use

1. Use by the Parks and Recreation Department in conducting community programs.

2. Groups or activities coordinated by the Parks and Recreation Department.

3. Local youth groups or activities which serve as character building agencies, organizations of school age children under the direct supervision of adult leadership, or groups or activities which serve and supply recreation to the senior citizens.

4. Groups or activities which have a recreation value to the entire community. (Civic, Service and other groups open to the general public.) (See examples of priority, Page 7)

Special Provisions

1. Reservations shall be made in order of receipt of application by the Parks and Recreation Department and subject to the availability of facilities. The Department shall accept reservations one year in advance for annual affairs of certain public and private organizations. The organization shall confirm the dates at least 90 days in advance, failing to do so, upon notification by the Department to the organization, the Department will not be obligated to keep the dates reserved.

2. Use of the Parks and Recreation facilities by other than Sierra Madre organizations will not be permitted except by special authorization of the Parks and Recreation Commission or the Director of Parks and Recreation, and only when such is deemed to be of benefit to the community of Sierra Madre. In the scheduling of Parks and Recreation facilities for use by outside organizations, activities of a recreation nature will be given precedence over meetings of a purely business nature.

3. Fraternal or sectarian organizations shall not be permitted to reserve the Parks and Recreation facilities for regularly scheduled meetings except by special agreement with the Parks and Recreation Commission. They may be permitted to use the facilities for social and/or recreation activities.

4. The Parks and Recreation facilities and premises are subject to inspection at any time during which they are being used and must pass inspection by the Director of Parks and Recreation, or his designated representative, as to proper use of the facilities and lack of abuse of public property, and further shall be subject at all times to Parks and Recreation Department, or police inspection, as to proper and orderly conduct.

5. Lockers are available for storage in Meeting Room No. 2. Groups which meet on a regular basis can request to rent them on a monthly basis.

6. All funds derived from fees, deposits, and other similar sources shall be placed in the City Parks and Recreation fund for exclusive use of Parks and Recreation Department purposes and functions.

Regulations For Use

1. All ordinances of the City of Sierra Madre shall be observed. Special attention is called to City Code, Chapter 4, Parks Sections $400 through $407.

2. The maximum size of groups to use the buildings shall be listed as prescribed by Fire and Safety Laws and Regulations.

3. The use of profane language, or loud, boisterous talking, or indecent conduct will not be permitted.

4. No advertising shall be exhibited, no petition shall be circulated, no solicitation or sales shall be made in the buildings or on the facilities without permission from the Parks and Recreation Commission.

5. Smoking shall be prohibited in the buildings except in designated areas.

6. The use of the Parks and Recreation facilities for minors on school days shall be limited to evening activities to 10:00 p.m. and on Fridays, Saturdays, and evenings preceding holidays to 11:00 p.m., except by special arrangement with the Parks and Recreation Commission or the Director of Parks and Recreation.

7. For evening use of the Parks and Recreation facilities by adult groups, activities must cease at 11:00 p.m. and the facilities put in order and vacated by 11:30 p.m., except by special agreement with the Parks and Recreation Commission or the Director.

8. There shall be no less than one (1) responsible adult for every twenty (20) youths, in attendance at youth groups activities, and said adult leaders shall be held responsible for the activities of the group. Failure to comply with this requirement shall constitute cause for denial of further use of facilities.

9. Organizations and groups shall be required to do a reasonable amount of cleaning after use of facilities such as cleaning up any litter or debris, returning all furniture and other equipment to usual positions, etc.

10. For organizations and groups to be eligible for refund of deposit, facilities must pass inspection by the Director of Parks and Recreation or his designated representative.

11. Groups must submit decoration plans (including pictures and other items to be attached to walls) to the Parks and Recreation Department and secure approval before decorations are installed.

12. No scotch tape or tacks are to be used on the walls.

13. No equipment or furnishings shall be removed from the building without permission from the Director of Parks and Recreation.

Part II of this article will cover Rental Fees and Regulations.

As Hank Ives Sees It

GER, the Los Angeles Stars have challenged the Laker rookies to a pair of contests to be played in Sept. with the proceeds of the games to go toward the "Save Sports" program in the Los Angeles City Schools. The Stars propose to play one game at the Forum under NBA rules and the other at the Sports Arena using ABA rules. Oddly, it has been a bit quiet on the Inglewood side of town.

ROD SHERMAN, one of Muir's most gifted ex-athletes, has his work cut out as he hopes to earn a spot on the Oakland Raiders as a flanker or split-end. Competition is rough. Big Lloyd Edwards, who ripped up the PCC Lancers as a fullback with the Harbor J.C. Seahawks, is trying out for the team as a tight end.

PAUL BROWN knew what he was talking about when he declared that his Cincinnati Bengals needed quarterback help. He released both Dewey "Swamp Rat" Warren and Johnny Stoffa and is putting his eggs in Greg Cook's basket. Cook was the MVP of the All-Star vs. Jet clambake.

YES, MATILDA, the professional football players put out 100 per cent in pre-season games. The only difference is that players that have any sort of injury are protected more than in regular season play.

HUNCH BET . . . Lionel Rose to upset favored Ruben Olivares in their Friday night bout at the Forum. Olivares has a million dollar punch and Lionel has spent some time on the seat of his pants in recent fights, but Rose's win over Chucho Castillo put him high on Old Hank's list of fistic greats.

WHO WAS IT that asked, "Do you think the Los Angeles Eagles really have a chance?" Reference to the multi trades that George Allen has made with the Philly gang.

A BOMBING WORLD SERIES might occur if the Baltimore face the Cincinnati. Both clubs have power they haven't even discovered yet. The Reds look like a good bet now that Gary Nolan is back and Jim Maloney is firing bee bees.

TOM HAMILTON expects this to be a lean year for his Pasadena High Bulldogs. Don't fret about it. That's an annual Sept. 1 prediction that fades come CIF playoff time.

One farmworker supplied the food and fiber for 43 persons during 1967, as compared to 23 persons during the 1957-59 period.

Phil Watson Warns Of False Claims

County Assessor Philip E. Watson today warned property owners to be wary of persons offering to act on their behalf to reduce the assessed values of their properties.

The Assessor's Department has received reports from taxpayers who signed contracts stipulating they pay agents a fee for "services" to reduce their assessments. One such case involved a woman who was charged over $300. An investigation revealed the assessed value of her property and other properties in her neighborhood were already reduced by the Assessor's appraisal staff because of declining market values in the area. There was no record of the agency having contacted the Assessor's Department or filing an application with the Assessment Appeals Board on behalf of the taxpayer.

Assessor Watson stated taxpayers who feel their properties are over-assessed can appear in person before the Assessment Appeals Board. Applications can be filed through September 15, with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in Room B-93, 500 West

California State Awards Degrees

California State College, Los Angeles recently awarded bachelor and master's degrees at their commencement exercises. Among the candidates for graduation were:

Gudrun B. Bodger, 1935 Vista Ave.; K. Lynn Brown, 68 E. Alegria Ave.; Sr. Eileen Higgins, 200 N. Michillinda; Cathy S. Huff, 250 Santa Anita Ct.; Kenneth W. Kinucan, 729 W. Alegria St.; Jerry D. Leaf, 397 Mountain Trail; Rudolph W. Liska, 53 Suffolk; Robert C. Lyon, 170 Coburn; Lorraine B. Mackness, 201 W. Highland.

Also Rollin E. Mann, 325 Camillo St.; Ronald R. Moon, 391-D W. Sierra Madre; John P. Murray, 115 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.; Nancy Ann Nigm, 431 Crestvale Dr.; Richard Alan Schoren, 528 N. Michillinda; Patricia S. Steele, 533 Sturtevant Dr.; Thomas S. Szakall, 144 E. Highland, and Marion F. Walker, 45 Olive Ave.

Temple St., or at one of the Assessor's 15 regional offices.

Watson suggested taxpayers contacted by persons offering to reduce their assessment for a fee should first seek legal advice before signing a contract that may later prove to be fraudulent.

Drugs In Southern California

by RUDOLPH HARTMAN

Area residents can be thankful that Southern California does have "drug" stores and pharmacists handling drugs for the benefit and welfare of the people.

Though a number of drugs have hit the headlines through misuse, and although Uncle Sam has found it necessary to investigate drug firm operations, there are a number of facts that never seem to break through into print.

For example, in the year 1968 alone, drug manufacturers spent a total of $521 million on research. During the past decade, drug industry expenditures for research have increased at a rate more than twice as great as its increase in sales.

In less than 10 years, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, drug prices have declined 10 per cent in the face of a general rise in most other prices. In contributions to human well being, no other industry can match the record of the pharmaceutical manufacturer.

Whole areas of disease have been wiped out, and others have been slowed down, such as scarlet fever, diphtheria, smallpox, and pneumonia to mention a few. Thanks to tranquilizers, mental hospitals today have 68,000 fewer patients than in their peak year of 1955. Out of the 848 new drugs introduced since 1940, 525 were developed in the U.S. and 92 per cent of those developed in the States were produced in the laboratories of private industry. Not a single worthwhile drug has been produced in communist-dominated countries in more than 50 years.

By shortening hospital visits, the drug industry holds down medical care costs. Often five worth of penicillin make take the place of a $1,000 operation.

Next time you have reason to need an important drug for special use, just remember the thousands of research drugs used as medicines, even down to the aspirin for drug available. You can also be thankful the drug is controlled by law so that a monopoly on a particular product cannot exist, which could bring exorbitant prices, and make it impossible for the person with an average income to take advantage of the drug's healing qualities.

Though certain drugs have been getting a bad "press" due to their being misused, we can all be thankful for scientists who have, by many hours of labor, made the headaches!

Next time you walk into your friendly drug store, be thankful you live in America!

You and Your Neighbors

Mrs. R. Robert Evans and daughters Candy and Robin arrived home after two weeks stay in Vacation Village at San Diego, where they took in the San Diego Zoo, Marineland, and thousand of other sightseeing trips around the area. While enjoying one of the areas they chanced to meet Mr. Daniel and Eloise Parker who were spending the week in the San Diego area. Candy and Robin claim they had the time of their lives but are happy to be home and be able to swim in their own pool and enjoy their own home.

Sgt. Robert Heasley and wife Janette returned from their weekly trip to the mountains, with great approval about the wonderful weather and blue sky. This is a trip that they try and make each weekend and one that always has new and exciting things in store for them. Next week they hope to spend the entire week in the mountains as one of Sgt. Heasley's vacation weeks.

For informational purposes, we do still have a few copies of the newspaper that carried the assessment list for this area. They are going fast and when depleted there will be no more for this year.

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department was host to the San Gabriel Valley Firemen's Association, on Tuesday of this week. Carl Hansen was gracious enough to turn over his lower level to the boys for the gala get-together with luncheon and beverages. About 100 attended from all over the valley. Once a year it is Sierra Madre's pleasure to have the group here.

Don Jackson is having his "Sale of the Year" starting this week; for those that hurry, many bargains can be found that will help with the clothing budget.

"Over the hills to Grandmother's house . . ." That was for Thanksgiving or Christmas . . . Well, anyhow Mrs. Edward Decker (Arlene) and children Walter and Laura flew to Oklahoma to visit Arlene's mother Mrs. Lela Walter. Walter left right after school was out and spent 5 weeks helping out on the farm. He had a great time driving the tractor, plowing and cultivating, and says it was fine for vacation but he doesn't think he would like to be a farmer. Arlene and Laura joined him later and had two weeks of visiting and enjoying all the farm activities. Laura chopped cotton (which was a hot job) and went horse back riding. She also helped by feeding the chickens and gathering the eggs. Arlene says she enjoyed the clear blue sky and the long twilight evenings. All are glad to be back with "Dear Old Dad" and are looking forward to a vacation with him in the High Sierras before school starts.

ORDINANCE NO. 842

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE, CALIFORNIA, AMENDING SECTION 8310 PERTAINING TO DELINQUENT WATER BILLS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE DOES ORDAIN:

SECTION 1. Section 8310 of Chapter 3, Article 8, of the Sierra Madre City Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8310. Delinquent Bills

All Meters shall be read by the Water Department as provided in Section 8304 of this Chapter, and all bills for water or service shall be due and payable at the Sierra Madre City Hall upon presentation. All water bills remaining unpaid for a period of twenty-five (25) days shall become delinquent and there shall be added to such delinquent bill an additional charge of ten per cent. Where water bills become delinquent, the service to such delinquent user may be shut off at any time after a ten day written notice. The Water Superintendent may, in his discretion, cause a meter reading to be made at any time and thereupon the bill for water used since the previous reading shall become immediately due and payable and shall become delinquent on the 25th day following the mailing or presentation of such bill and shall be subject to the charges and penalties herein provided for such delinquencies.

SECTION II. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Sierra Madre News, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the City of Sierra Madre.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE DOES ORDAIN:

SECTION 1. A new Part 4 reading as follows is hereby added to Chapter 3 of Article VI of the Sierra Madre City Code:

PART 4 - LOTTERING AND OBSTRUCTION OF STREETS

6405. Reference to Ordinance or Statute.

Whenever any reference is made to any portion of this, or of any other part of any statute, such reference shall apply to all amendments and additions thereto now or hereafter made.

6405.1. Constitutionality. If any provision or clause of this part or application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this part which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this part are declared to be severable.

6405.2. No Conflict with State Statutes.

This ordinance does not prohibit any act prohibited by Section 374b of the Penal Code or by Section 647 of the Vehicle Code or by any other State statute or State law.

6405.3. Tenses. The present tense includes the past and future tenses.

6405.4. Genders. Each gender includes the other two genders.

6405.5. Number. The singular number includes the plural and the plural the singular.

PART 2. UNREASONABLE OBSTRUCTION OF HIGHWAYS.

6406. Lottering. A person shall not loiter or stand in or upon any public highway, alley, sidewalk or cross-walk or other public way open for pedestrian travel or otherwise occupy any portion thereof in such manner as unreasonably to obstruct or interfere with the free passage of pedestrians.

6406.1. Sitting or Lying on Public Ways.

A person shall not sit, lie or sleep in or upon any public highway, alley, sidewalk or cross-walk or other public way open for pedestrian travel.

The provisions of this section do not prohibit a person from sitting upon a public highway, alley, sidewalk, or cross-walk or other public way open for pedestrian travel if:

- (a) necessitated by the physical disability of such person;
- (b) viewing a legally conducted parade; or
- (c) on a bench lawfully installed for such purpose.

6406.2. Obstructing Entrances. A person shall not loiter or stand in or at the entrance of any church, hall, theatre, moving picture theatre or place of public assembly so as unreasonably to obstruct such entrance.

PART 3. LEAVING ARTICLES ON HIGHWAYS.

6407. Prohibition. A person shall not leave or permit to remain on any public highway, alley, sidewalk or cross-walk or other public way open for pedestrian travel any merchandise, baggage, or any article of personal property.

6407.1. Exception. This article does not apply to any temporary rack or stand used for the purpose of displaying newspapers for sale while such rack or stand is so used if such rack or stand does not occupy any portion of the highway, alley, sidewalk, or cross-walk or other public way open for pedestrian travel.

6407.2. Exception Applies Only if Constitutional.

Section 6407.1 of this part applies only if it will not invalidate Section 6407 of this Ordinance. The City Council of the City of Sierra Madre hereby declares that it would have passed and does hereby pass this Section and each sentence, section, clause and phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

PART 3. LEAVING ARTICLES ON HIGHWAYS.

6408. Lottering Near Schools. A person shall not loiter about any school or public place at or near which school children attend.

6408.1. Lottering. A person shall not deposit or throw any litter or trash on any public highway or sidewalk or on any private property without the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof.

SECTION 2. SEVERABILITY. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The City Council of the City of Sierra Madre hereby declares that it would have passed and does hereby pass this Section and each sentence, section, clause and phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

SECTION 3. PENALTY. Any person, firm or corporation violating this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment in the City or County Jail for a period of not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 4. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Sierra Madre News, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the City of Sierra Madre.

6407.1. Exception. This article does not apply to any temporary rack or stand used for the purpose of displaying newspapers for sale while such rack or stand is so used if such rack or stand does not occupy any portion of the highway, alley, sidewalk, or cross-walk or other public way open for pedestrian travel.

6407.2. Exception Applies Only if Constitutional.

Section 6407.1 of this part applies only if it will not invalidate Section 6407 of this Ordinance. The City Council of the City of Sierra Madre hereby declares that it would have passed and does hereby pass this Section and each sentence, section, clause and phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

PART 3. LEAVING ARTICLES ON HIGHWAYS.

6408. Lottering Near Schools. A person shall not loiter about any school or public place at or near which school children attend.

6408.1. Lottering. A person shall not deposit or throw any litter or trash on any public highway or sidewalk or on any private property without the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof.

SECTION 2. SEVERABILITY. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The City Council of the City of Sierra Madre hereby declares that it would have passed and does hereby pass this Section and each sentence, section, clause and phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

SECTION 3. PENALTY. Any person, firm or corporation violating this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment in the City or County Jail for a period of not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 4. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Sierra Madre News, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the City of Sierra Madre.

ORDINANCE NO. 843

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE, CALIFORNIA

Editorially... Speaking

Dragging Their Feet!

President Richard M. Nixon has traveled 'round the globe outlining his nation's foreign policy to diplomats in Asia, behind the iron curtain in Romania, and in Western Europe. Mariners 6 and 7 finished the five month journey to Mars to beam pictures back to earth of what it's likely to be like up there. The Apollo 11 astronauts reached the moon and returned.

While these history-making events have transpired the Democrats in control of Congress, Republicans charge, are conducting a "loaf-in" which has stalled some 30 major pieces of Republican-sponsored legislation necessary to keep things on an even keel at home.

On the July 1 start of the fiscal year, the Republicans point out, Congress has passed none of the 13 appropriations bills it must enact to keep the federal government functioning. The whole argument of what comes first, passage of the income tax surcharge or tax reform, has every businessman in the country beginning to stall key business decisions until the tax consequences become clear.

Add to this pleasant domestic mix the sharply divided controversy over whether an Anti Ballistic Missile system should be deployed in the United States and it is a little clearer why more people are interested in space than in viewing Congress' actions. Or, more accurately, inaction.

Among the Nixon programs pending before the Democratically-controlled Congress are items such as:

- Surtax extension and tax reform.
- Two billion dollars - plus in anti-poverty funds.
- Anticrime bills changing witness immunity laws, grand jury procedures, bail reform, and campus disorders.
- Consumer protection laws concerning credit information.

The food stamp program and the school lunch program.

Changes in the draft law.

Defense procurement and research funds.

A measure to extend the present policy restricting trade with Communist countries.

A $2 billion housing and urban affairs program.

A measure to convert the post office into a self-supporting public corporation.

A 10 year program to upgrade the nation's airports.

And a host of others.

By blocking the Administration program the Democrats obviously hope to embarrass the President and make political hay for 1970. If the Republicans tag the Democrats as the mischief makers then the political tables would be reversed. These are the political stakes.

How the game comes out will have a marked effect on mundane problems such as inflation, take-home pay, the country's defense posture and those other things for which the taxpayers pay.

Meaningful Tax Reform

To be truly meaningful, any tax reform program must have as its central theme the equalization not only of the burden as between all taxpayers but also the impact, for good or bad, that taxes have on all segments of the economy.

The State Senate's vote to repeal the tax exemption enjoyed by church-owned business properties which are in direct competition with tax-paying private enterprise was a step in the latter direction.

The bill (AB 1618) now before the Legislature, authored by Assemblyman William T. Bagley of San Rafael, to impose a fair excise tax on government owned utilities which now do not pay their share of state, local government, or school district costs, was another such step.

This excise tax, estimated to raise about $50 million annually, would be divided 50 per cent to school districts, 20 per cent to counties, and 20 per cent to cities, all in areas served by presently non-tax paying government utilities. The remaining 10 per cent would go to the state general fund. Obviously, this would provide much needed new revenues without resource to tax property raises.

But there also is that second and almost vital factor in this tax reform proposal — the equalization of the tax burden on the economy. At present, geographic areas that have tax-exempt utility rates enjoy an unfair advantage over those whose utility bills include tax payments in attracting new industry. The economic benefits of more jobs, higher disposable income, greater property tax base, and general prosperity obviously are not equitably distributed.

This, of course, is not just a California problem. The National Association of Manufacturers this year adopted a policy of tax equalization for power suppliers calling for the sort of equitable sharing of the necessary burden of government costs that is the aim of the Bagley bill. Although action will not be taken on it this session, the measure points a direction in which lies our hope for truly meaningful tax reform.

A Real Gasser

Breaking the sound barrier is putt-putt stuff in the aviation business, but it's coming closer to being an accomplished fact in the automotive world, too.

Come September a rocket-engined vehicle fueled by liquid natural gas (LNG) is scheduled to start a series of runs in Utah aimed not only at existing land speed records, but also the speed of sound and a superonic 1000-mile-per-hour mark. The car, sponsored by the American Gas Association as a demonstration of the versatility of LNG, will run at reduced thrust in September. Its Bonneville Salt Flats goal will be to top Craig Breedlove's 600.01 mph record.

The sound barrier will come next, in 1970, and the 1000 mph try some time later.

That's an ambitious and spectacular schedule, but it is all part of a continuing industry research program designed to provide consumers of all sorts with better fuel and new ways to use it. Another ingenious American private enterprise effort to make a good product better.

Sick? Hardly

A Chicago - based, nationally syndicated columnist recently ran an item quoting press reports about the success his city's police had in persuading a young man not to jump from the 10th floor of a south side bank building while a heckling crowd shouted to him to jump. The columnist's comment: "And you still think this isn't a sick society?"

The answer is "Yes. Were YOU there heckling? Was your wife? Were your fellow newspapermen, or most of the people you meet in all areas of Chicago life? To you, do those few disturbed ones really represent society?"

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

With war in Asia, strife in the Middle East and tension in Europe, the United States sometimes seems to be engulfed with problems and responsibilities. As the leader of the free world the U.S. is burdened almost beyond belief, and apparently there is no end to problems. Some of the most vexing problems have cropped up in the Western hemisphere in recent weeks and months.

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's tour of Latin countries started a chain reaction of riots and demonstrations against the United States. Lands that long were considered "good neighbors" proved to be centers of bitterness towards North Americans.

As disturbing as the angry outbursts were the actions of Peru and Chile in nationalizing U.S. - owned properties. These actions were all the more troubling because in the past Peru and Chile were generally stable and friendly. The nationalization hurts the United States and hurts the people of all Latin American countries.

Peru, a military regime with left-of-center views, expropriated large land holdings by both Peruvians and foreigners. Owners are supposed to be compensated for their lands, but when and in what amount they will be paid is highly questionable.

The Peruvian government, by seizing large land tracts and redistributing them, hopes to gain the loyalty of the Indian masses. "Agrarian reform" is a slogan beloved of all leftwing regimes, but it is a hollow phrase. Peru has been making economic progress in recent years as agriculture has been diversified, irrigation has been introduced, and modernization of farming methods has been employed. But the progress has resulted from the enterprise and investment of owners of large tracts.

Fragmenting the country's farmlands or putting them under politically-controlled collectives almost certainly will reduce farm production in Peru. The experience of farmers around the world is that small plots and state-run farm enterprises will not work.

Profitable farming requires investment, skilled direction, and incentive for owners. Thus Peru has taken a backward step in dividing large land holdings. A social dogma has been allowed to overcome economic realities.

In expropriating the land, the Peruvian government also has scared off U.S. and other foreign investors. If the Peruvians will seize farm lands, it is likely that they will seize other properties as well. In these circumstances, capitalist investors have good cause for keeping their money out of Peru. Again, the people of Peru will be hurt by the shortsightedness of their left-leaning government.

In Chile, the U.S.-owned Anaconda Company has been forced to agree to so-called "negotiated nationalization" of its copper mines and facilities. Business writers have estimated that, in the process, Anaconda will lose access to mines that provide two-thirds of its earnings. The North American company apparently had no real choice in the matter of a sale. Either it agreed to terms offered, or more direct nationalization would have been decreed.

Again, Chileans as well as U.S. investors will be hurt by the takeover. The mining and marketing of copper is an extremely complex operation. Copper-producing countries face a highly competitive situation. Right now, copper prices are high because of defense uses. If the Vietnam war is ended, copper prices may sag, and the inexperienced Chilean management may find that it is unable to compete with the highly experienced companies that sell copper mined in Zambia, South Africa and other countries.

These South American nations are cutting their own throats. They are depriving their people of economic opportunities. The taxpayers of the United States are not going to pour endless funds into Latin nations in the form of giveaways. The only long-term hope for the Latins is for are enjoying a two-weeks' trip up the coast. They expect to go as far as possible in the time at their disposal, but will take time to visit many points of interest enroute. They expect to return to Sierra Madre about August 26.

It was "Lee Shippey Day" yesterday at the meeting of the Author's Club in Hollywood. Mr. Shippey, author, newspaperman and columnist for the Sierra Madre News, was the speaker at the meeting of the club of which he has been a member for 28 years. He served as vice president under the presidencies of Irvin S. Cobb, Rupert Hughes and Paul I. Wellman. Mr. Shippey's latest book, "Luckiest Man Alive," will be released in October by West-erlore Press. It may be purchased locally at Perry's Stationery Store.

Voters in 15 communities of the San Gabriel Valley will cast their ballots in a special election Tuesday, December 8, to decide whether a proposed Upper San Gabriel Valley Municipal Water District should be formed. Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, announced yesterday.

Three local families reportedly pooled equipment for a week of camping (mit der kinder) on Lake Tahoe's shores, the John Grijalvas, John Grahams and Ed Rambeaus.

Mr. Delgatto is the manager of Pantorium Drive-In Cleaners, 330 W. Sierra Madre, Sierra Madre, Calif., one of the more than 8500 members of the National Institute of Drycleaning.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Delgatto, Sr. of 734 Fairview Ave., Sierra Madre, and is married to the former Miss Vera Ryser, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ryser of 9968 E. Broadway, Temple City, Calif. The Delgattos have three children: Anthony, 9, Michael, 7, and Maryann, 4.

Mr. Delgatto is a member of the Optimist Club.

Swim Team

13-14 relays with seventh places in the medley and freestyle relays.

This Saturday, August 23, will find ten Sierra Madre swimmers competing in the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation Finals at John Anson Ford Park in Bell Gardens. They are: Cyndy Scott, Melinda Starkweather, Joanne Ball, Dana Knickelbein, Debra Temple, Greg Young, Owen Lubow, Andy Rogers, Adrienne John, and Roark Paschall.

All swimmers are presently looking forward to the annual beach trip to be held August 26, at Huntington State Beach from 10 to 7. The team will be traveling by bus, so all swimmers are asked to sign up by Friday, August 22 and bring with them $2.25 to cover the cost of transportation and food and drink.

General Telephone

blend into or complement any color scheme in the business or home. Unlike all other telephones designed by the utility, this particular model has been planned to be used as both a desk and wall telephone.

"General Telephone's contemporary designed Style-line offers many advantages to the busy housewife or businessman. With the dial and the cut-off switch both in the handset, several calls can be made without hanging up the instrument. All that is needed to make a second call is to push the cut-off switch, listen for dial tone and start dialing," says the division manager.

"Customers interested in seeing these attractive telephones are invited to visit our display in the lobby of our business office, or ask any of our employees for more details about pricing, installation or colors of the new instruments," concluded Schull.

Rev. Anderson Announces His Sunday Topic

"Take God Along!" This will be the advice of Reverend Richard J. Anderson when he preaches next Sunday at Sierra Madre Congregational Church. The regular worship service will be held at 11 a.m. with care provided for nursery school age children and infants. Church school classes for all ages will be held at 9:30 a.m.

The Reverend Anderson and his family have just returned to Sierra Madre after a vacation trip to beaches in Southern and Northern California and a visit with relatives in San Diego. Mr. Anderson admonishes that while it can be very refreshing to have a change of location, a change of climate and activity, a true vacation, whether on weekends or for extended periods requires more than "getting away from it all."

"Don't lay aside or leave behind those very things that will insure a true rest, physically, mentally and spiritually. Find time for worship, prayer, Scripture study, and Christian fellowship," says Reverend Anderson. He continues, "God isn't a kill-joy or a wet-blanket. Take Him along. Include Him in your thoughts, your thanks and your plans. You'll find that when you are at peace with God you really enjoy yourself. He'll help you find the kind of rest and peace you really need."

Sermon: 'Divine Engineering' For August 24

The public is cordially invited to worship with the members and friends of The Santa Anita Church, 226 West Colorado Blvd., Arcadia on August 24, at 11 a.m. Margaret M. Stevens, minister, has chosen as her subject, "Divine Engineering." Infant and child care is provided during the service.

Graded classes are conducted for children from pre-school through seventh grade after a fifteen minute worship service in the sanctuary at 11 a.m. The young adults hold their meetings on Sunday evenings at 7 p.m.

A class in successful living is led by Rev. Stevens every Thursday at 11 a.m. The public is cordially invited to attend this class. There is a time for prayer requests and a time of fellowship and work project after the class.

The Ethel Barnhart School, a Christian Day School, from kindergarten through eighth grade, has applications available for the 1969-70 school year. The Carder Method of Reading and Comprehension is offered and there is a class in religious education. The emphasis is upon teaching children to think and act from within. Call 446-8206 for further information.

A brochure of the fall classes will be sent to you if you call 446-8206.

"Call 447-6162, day or night, to receive a blessing," says Rev. Stevens.

Rev. Armin Hesse Announces His Sunday Sermon

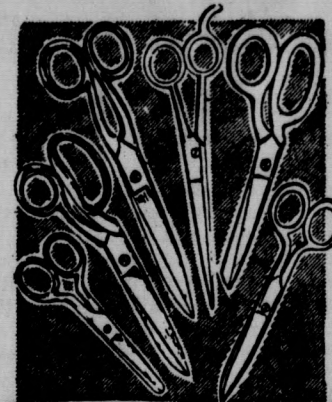

As his sermon subject for the 10 o'clock Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, the Rev. Armin Hesse has selected the theme "Proof of God's Reality." He will center his pulpit message on the request of Moses address to the Lord, "I pray You, show me Your glory," and the subsequent directives which Moses received from the Lord as stated in Exodus 33: 18-23.

On Sunday noon at 12:00, the young people of the Waltham League will leave for a beach party at Huntington Beach. Other events scheduled for the week include: Married couples' volleyball night on Tuesday at 6:30; Waltham League sport night on Wednesday at 6:30; and the Pastor's Adult Church - Membership Study Class on Wednesday evening at 8:00.

The two-week Children's Vacation Bible School opened last Monday with an enrollment of 61 children. Daily 9:00 to 12:00 morning sessions will continue throughout next week, under the direction of Mr. Donald Hingst, the church's Minister of Education and Youth.

Serving on the Staff as instructors are the Mmes. Charlene Meuser, Gladys Moore, Nina Bartolai, Sonja Grishbach, Elizabeth Lightfall, Bernice Sheppard, Esther Imm, Josephine Tschopp, Dortha Penner, Sylvia Ourl, and Esther Leehy. Serving as assistants and helpers are the Mmes. Gertrude Gerke, Sandra Ballatore, Shirley Hingst, and the following young people: Lee Pancoska, Ann Goepfinger, Steve Martinez, Mary Ellen Miller, Dawn Williams, Debbie Elfert, Marvin Imm, Rhonda Schroeder, and Mia Wessels.

On Thursday evening, August 28, a Vacation Bible School Attainment Service and Night will be held, beginning at 7:30. Not only pupils and parents, but visitors are invited to the evening event.

Lesson-Sermon For Scientists

"And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven."

This verse from Exodus is part of the Christian Science Lesson - Sermon, titled "Mind," to be read in the denomination's churches this week.

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "The human capacities are enlarged and perfected in proportion as humanity gains the true conception of man and God."

Dist. Attorney Younger Makes Review

4 vote in the United States Supreme Court is a sufficient margin to void state court decisions on due process issues.

Expanding on his point, Younger said it might be appropriate "to consider requiring that a two-thirds vote — or even a unanimous vote — is necessary to reverse a conviction previously affirmed by the highest state court of appeal in a case involving a due process issue."

"There is precedent in our legislatures. Certain issues require a majority vote, others require a two-thirds vote. Adoption of such a system for the United States Supreme Court would reduce the instability created by narrow voting majorities of the court and would more reasonably reflect a judicial consensus."

He then cited "two cases which demonstrate the problem which a double-layer of judicial review can cause." In the first, a robbery-murder occurred in Los Angeles in 1961. A death penalty verdict was returned by a trial jury and was automatically reviewed by the State Supreme Court.

In May, 1962, the court affirmed the conviction, and thereafter a writ of habeas corpus was brought in the California Supreme Court "alleging that the prosecution had knowingly used perjured testimony."

A full-scale evidentiary hearing was held and the State Supreme Court denied the petition for writ of habeas corpus in December, 1963. In July, 1964, a second petition for habeas corpus was brought in the State Supreme Court. As a result, a new penalty trial was ordered. Because of the unavailability of witnesses, the district attorney's office was unable to retry the penalty phase and the penalty was reduced to life imprisonment.

Afterwards, the defendant brought a writ of habeas corpus in Federal District Court in San Francisco where "the same issues were raised as had been extensively reviewed in the first state court petition for habeas corpus proceeding."

The federal court granted the writ based on its review of the evidentiary question of whether or not perjured testimony had been used.

"Thus," said Younger, "a single federal trial judge has overruled the findings of the jury, the decision of a Superior Court judge in denying a motion for a new trial, the findings of the California referee and the determination by the California Supreme Court that the evidence sustained the finding of that referee."

"Since this case cannot be retried, the Attorney General of California is appealing the decision of the federal district judge to the Federal Circuit Court of Appeal."

"Thereafter, if the decision is affirmed, certiorari will be sought in the United States Supreme Court. If these remedies fail, a duly convicted murderer must be released."

The second case mentioned by Younger was the burning to death of six persons in a Los Angeles cafe in August, 1957. In December, 1958, six counts of murder in the first degree were affirmed by the State Supreme Court against three persons.

In 1958, the United States Supreme Court denied a petition for certiorari; in 1959, habeas corpus was denied by the United States District Court.

The following year, the Ninth Circuit reversed the District Court and ordered an evidentiary hearing. The Federal District Court later denied habeas corpus, and this denial was affirmed by the Circuit Court.

However, this denial was reversed by the United States Supreme Court, which ordered an additional evidentiary hearing. In 1963, after another hearing, habeas corpus was once again

Santina Rosa Succumbs Aug. 17

Recitation of Rosary was held Tuesday evening at the hour of 7:30 for Mrs. Santina Rosa, age 76 who passed away August 17 at the Sierra Madre Community Hospital after a lengthy illness. Requiem mass was sung at 9 a.m. Wednesday, August 20 at the St. Rita's Church with Rev. Thomas J. O'Malley officiating.

Mrs. Rosa came to this country from Italy some 45 years ago and resided at 3303 Ralph Street in Rosemead since that time. She leaves to mourn her death two daughters Mrs. Richard Morago of Monrovia and Mrs. Robert Simpson of Walnut Creek.

Interment was in Calvary Cemetery in Los Angeles, with Rippel Mortuary of Sierra Madre handling the arrangements.

Attempt To Help the People

Questions and Answers By D.A. Evelle J. Younger

Questions and Answers (Part I)

Violence and Education (Editor's note: Students, particularly on college and university campuses, are engaging in demonstrations and unlawful acts, and Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger is frequently asked questions about this subject. His column today answers some of the questions ask by citizens. The second column will appear next week.)

Q. In your opinion, what are some of the ingredients responsible for violence and destruction on the campus today?

A. There are five ingredients:

1. The permissive society in which we live;
2. The fact that some of our schools are substandard;
3. Administrators who are, generally, untrained and completely unqualified to cope with the problems they are facing today;

4. Teenagers who are different than any of their predecessors; and
5. The professional troublemakers.

Q. Would you explain in more detail about these five ingredients?

A. As for the permissive society in which we live, many Americans have apparently believed that the best way to preserve our ideals and institutions is to attack them.

I believe, in recent years, we have been unduly tolerant towards those in our midst who perpetrated illegal and often violent acts. Assaultive behavior has been permitted on many a campus that would not have been permitted on skid row.

Prominent professors, ministers and professional men have repeatedly urged young people to disobey laws they consider to be immoral. Is it any wonder that many young people are con-

Another angle in the Arcadia-Sierra Madre water situation was injected into the proceedings last week when Mayor A. N. Multer made public announcement to the effect that Arcadia and Sierra Madre would join forces in endeavoring to secure water from the Big Santa Anita Canyon, now backed up behind the new flood control dam and claimed by the Oakwood Syndicate.

A new chapter in California's warfare against injurious insects has been initiated in Los Angeles County in the campaign against the walnut fly, a cousin to the Mediterranean fruit fly, believed to be almost as serious to the walnut industry as the Mediterranean fly is to the fruit and vegetable industry.

Power Swap Gets Tested In Emergency

Successful operation of the Pacific Northwest - Southwest Power Intertie probably prevented a serious system disturbance along the West Coast, Thursday, August 7.

George H. Larsen, Southern California Edison Company Altadena manager, said that at 3:20 a.m. Thursday, a massive loss of power at Grand Coulee Dam in the Pacific Northwest placed a sudden demand for reserve power on the Intertie system.

"A total of 1,200,000 kilowatts of power — enough to serve nearly 2 million people — were lost at Grand Coulee. California utilities, using their reserve capacities, responded with sufficient power to support the interconnected system and prevent any outage," he said.

"At the time of the incident, Edison was receiving 425,000 kw of power over the Intertie. After the incident occurred, Edison was sending 100,000 kw through the Intertie to the Northwest — a total change in power flow of 525,000 kw," he said.

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. supplied an additional 125,000 kw of emergency support to the Pacific Northwest.

He said frequencies and voltages from the occurrence were all normal within five minutes.

"No firm customer service was interrupted in California from Thursday morning's incident," he said.

about news, columns and writing in the Sierra Madre News, let us express another phase of our life as a community newspaper.

— CT —

I am sure that all of you know that any newspaper or business must make a profit of some sort to keep publishing week in and week out. We therefore rely upon our advertisers and their support to continue operation, and must give them value received so that they may also stay in business to support us.

— CT —

In dedicating ourselves to our advertisers and our readers who buy the paper from week to week, we likewise obligate ourselves to them, and therefore make double effort to print not only their news, but that which we feel will be of interest to them.

— CT —

When a group of individuals or an individual, who supports other publications, comes to us for publication of their columns or news, we only take it and publish it after those we are obligated to have had their articles and news in the newspaper. Should space be left over, and the items are of a general interest, then and only then will we spend our advertisers' and news readers' money to set and prepare the item for publication.

— CT —

Many who come to us with "hat in hand" on occasions and want their special articles printed maintain that we must spend money to set type of some sort and therefore why not set theirs. As stated before we only do this when we have space left over.

— CT —

Pictures is another item that gets much conversation. An average picture costs in the neighborhood of $12 to $20 to have them engraved for the paper. Why should this newspaper pay for them if those who want the picture published stand before you and say that it is certainly not worth that to them and they do not want to pay for it. Engagements and wedding are entirely different. This newspaper budgets $2,000 a year for pictures and weddings and engagements come first. It is our gift to the bride-to-be and the bride and groom. It is a special occasion in their life that may never happen again.

— CT —

Should we have monies left over in our budget, we then pick those pictures that we feel is the most important to the people of the community. All others have the opportunity of paying for their pictures and the newspaper furnishes the space and the typesetting without charge.

— CT —

It costs in the neighborhood of $10,000 a month to produce this newspaper, 60 per cent of which is salaries. The newspaper is 62 years old, and I have been its publisher for the past 7 years. This is our policy and we will maintain it to the letter until such time as it is necessary for us to close the doors and cease publication for ever, and this we will do without hesitation, which will NOT be soon, I hope, I hope, I hope.

THEORIES DIFFER

Theories differ in accounting procedure which can affect projections of future interests and escalations. The cost projections done by Mr. Brown and Mr. Wagner are to the year 2035, or for a period of 65 years. Mr. Wagner compares the costs of the MWD and SGVMWD including the cost of 1,500,000 acre-feet of water and concludes that to remain independent would save us $28.80 - $47.00 million (last figure includes resale of excess water) which could reduce SGVMWD's annual district tax rate by 17c to 25c. Mr. Brown, using different fixed cost components (fixed costs defined as payment for activities in getting the water) says that the annexation to MWD would save the people $52.03 million. Mr. Brown further states that it is estimated that the difference in water rate between the State and MWD may be about 25 dollars per acre foot on a long time basis, MWD being the higher priced source. If the full entitlement of 1,651,000 acre-feet were used, then the added water costs would be about $41.1 million. The savings then would be $7.7 million. In the opinion of some experts in the field, this amount of water contracted for is probably too high, which may mean an even greater savings.

KINDS OF WATER

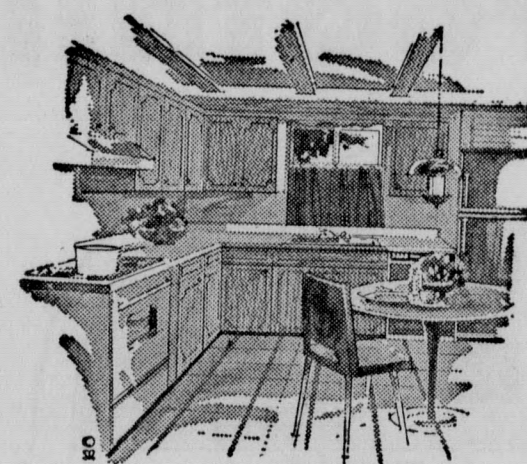

Filtered water is pumped directly into the system while replenishment water goes into spreading basins to undergo natural filtration. Opponents to joining the MWD feel that if we did annex to MWD we would probably use reclaimed (replenishment) water which would not be free. For this there are many costs including cost of treatment center, treatment, delivery including pipeline, pumps, etc. Proponents for the annexation say that there is no definite statement what kind of water would be used. They also point out that by annexing to the MWD a choice of supplemental water would be available.

Mr. Wagner feels that if the SGVMWD were to remain independent they would have the right to sell any excess water contracted for to other districts at a higher price since we paid for the pipeline. This then could reduce SGVMWD's bond indebtedness.

CONCLUSION

Proponents and opponents of annexing to the MWD base their opinions mainly on the monetary question but also include other advantages and disadvantages of autonomy. We have touched a few aspects of the many faceted question. Mr. Brown and Mr. Wagner have promised to make the public aware of their individual opinions before the November 4 election when the people will decide whether to remain in SGVMWD or to annex to MWD.

Know the Food You Eat

into cultivation during the sixteenth century, but only as a curiosity. In the middle of the nineteenth century improvements in the size and form of the fruit were made and today breeders have developed hundreds of varieties from the original small, wrinkled, seedy fruit.

Another important ingredient of our salad is the Onion which has been cultivated for so long that it is difficult as to its origin. It may have originated in Asia Minor or India. We know onions were used in early Egypt, Greece and are mentioned in the Bible.

If you prefer a more delicate flavor Leeks, also a member of the lily family may be used. The leek is native to Switzerland and is found growing wild in Algeria. It too was cultivated by the Greeks and was so highly regarded by the Romans that Nero is said to have eaten them regularly for several days each month to clear his voice.

Perhaps you would like to add a dash to your salad with a some garden cress or pepper grass. It is an early salad plant said to have been eaten by the Persians in 400 B.C. As a garnish you could add a few sprigs of parsley. Parsley was known as early as the third century, B.C. Both the Greeks and Romans used Parsley as a garnish and flavoring. However it did not gain acceptance in Europe until the 13th century.

It was introduced in England in 1548. The first plants came from the Island of Sardinia, and later in the 17th century it was brought to America.

To add a crisp note to your salad include a few slices of the Jerusalem Artichoke. This perennial tuber is from a native American perennial sunflower. One of the few plants cultivated by the Indians, the Jerusalem Artichoke was introduced to Europe by some of the early explorers. These tubers are valuable in the diet of diabetics as they contain no starch, and store sugar in the form of levulose. It may be eaten raw or cooked. The flavor is very much like the crisp water chestnuts used by the Chinese.

Perhaps we should rename our salad "The Salad of The Ancients."

Two recent birthdays in the Miner (Sara) Harkness family were daughter, Claudine who turned 6 years on July 31 and Sara's who celebrated her birth anniversary on August 8. Happy birthday wishes to both of them. The entire family just returned from ten wonderful, fun-filled, sun-filled days at Capistrano Beach. "Entire family" is: Miner, Sara, Philippe, Jacques, Claudine, and Andrea. Teenager friend of the family, Miss Janet Bourgeois of Sierra Madre also accompanied the family. Must have been hard for them to come back . . . beach vacations are always lots of fun.

In the belated greeting department: Happy wedding anniversary to C. Lauren and Betty Maltby of 120 Lowell who celebrated their 41st (yes, forty-first) anniversary on July 21. Our congratulations, best wishes, admiration and best wishes for many, many more.

FIRE SIDE

By One of the Boys

It is really something when that Plectron Radio goes off announcing a fire, the blood pressure rises to the fullest extent and it really doesn't make any difference whether it is a true alarm, a false alarm or just the County Alarm system setting off the Plectrons accidental.

— SMVFD —
Take the other day for instance, it was hot, muggy and anything but a fire call day, and it happened the beep of the Plectron sounded, I was in the front office by the door, I waited to hear no more . . . off I went in a blaze of glory . . . As I run I count and I know just about how many counts it takes for the fire horn to blow . . . and the count ran out . . . It just didn't blow, so by the time I had reached the City Hall I knew that everything was not as it should be.

— SMVFD —
But alas, alas, the run had been made, merchants were standing on the sidewalk expecting to see the bright red truck go dashing out the double doors . . . But by this time I knew it wasn't going out, and I also knew something else . . . I knew that an inquisitive Reserve would be poking his head in the door with a silly grin on his face! so I did what was next . . . I crawled under the engine and hid, and waited until things cooled off.

— SMVFD —
Of course you have to come out eventually, so I slipped in the back door and went to work just like nothing happened . . . I got away with this just about as easy as a chicken thief gets away with stealing chickens, with feathers all over his face.

— SMVFD —
Anyway, one Reservist has been waiting neigh on to two years for this to happen and I am still about three ahead of him . . . So laugh, Clown, laugh; it really hurts more than you know.

— SMVFD —
Now I know how Engineer Graves felt last Monday night when the fire horn blew, the big red truck went by while he was stuffing his face at the Rendezvous and he never knew what had hit him until he was on his way home and found the fire barn doors open.

— SMVFD —
Then there was Senior Engineer Grippi, absolutely no one knows where he was when the horn blew, but I know where I was, and since nobody will believe me anyway, I am not going to waste my time in trying to explain it.

— SMVFD —
We have two things that we would like to offer congratulations for this week. We would especially like to congratulate Engineer Joe Signorino on securing his job with the City of Sierra Madre. Joe is an excellent man and will do much for the City. I am indeed happy that City Administrator Boehm and Parks and Recreation Director Richard Burton saw the hand writing and the wall and grabbed this man; he has great potentials.

— SMVFD —
We also wish to congratulate Secretary Don Burleson, aka Captain, aka Inspector, aka publisher of vital information. He finally published a personnel sheet without any errors, and a shout of joy went up from the Firefighters at their last meeting. We think things like this should be recognized. It was a job with 25 names and addresses well done.

— SMVFD —
After all everyone of us strive to do our best with the jobs that are given to us, and leaving off a name now and then should not be ground for execution . . . Do you think so Mike?

— SMVFD —
Tadpole McMahon said the other day he would sure be glad when the cold weather got here again. He has put over 200 pounds of ice in Engine 424's cooler and only had four fires in twelve days. OK Hugh, if it will help you, we wish it would hurry up too, however if worse comes to worse you could go out and recruit a new member and leave the tadpole to him . . . Ever think of that?

Questions and Answers By D.A. Younger

vinced they can make their own rules?
As for substandard schools, our educational system isn't perfect, of course. Many times when students protest and demonstrate, they have legitimate complaints. Unfortunately, our worst schools are often in areas where the best facilities and teachers are needed.

In this county in some low income areas, the schools are mostly attended by minority groups and the dropout rate is extremely high. Rarely does a student go on to college. Apart from considerations of humanity and justice, we cannot afford to allow this to continue.

Enlightened self-interest should compel us to take whatever steps are necessary to insure that every youngster in our nation gets a good enough education to allow him to get and keep a job.

Concerning administrators, we haven't trained many principals or college presidents in such subjects as mob psychology, guerrilla tactics and such things as they may necessarily have to know now if they are to be effective. Being untrained in this regard, it is natural that many sometimes exercise poor judgment.

For example, there is a general tendency to under-react to violence and threats of violence. Too often a college administrator will hesitate to call for police assistance in the early stages of a potentially violent situation when violence might be prevented.

Presumably, after learning the hard way, a high school or college administrator would call in police forces at an appropriate time without waiting for the situation to get out of hand.

In that connection, academicians, who generally and properly abhor violence and shun the physical as opposed to verbal approach, seem to be learning that there is no such thing as an insignificant crime and no such thing as a harmless violation of the law.

The fourth ingredient is the teenager. Teenagers today are firmly convinced that they know more than their parents or adults generally about the problems that confront us.

Some readers may say, "So what's new? I thought the same thing when I was a teenager." Well, the thing that makes the difference is the fact that today's teenagers may be right.

The knowledge gap between today's teenager and the adult population is narrower than it has ever been before. To put it another way, we have produced the best educated teenage generation in this or any other country since the beginning of time.

And, as might be anticipated, while they are generally willing to admit their brilliance and high level of education, they give no credit or see no casual connection between that happy state and the much-maligned educational system which produced them; and they certainly give no credit to that much-maligned group, their elders, who financed it.

So what we have is the highly-educated teenager with time on his hands and a high degree of social consciousness and impatience with what appears to be too slow progress in solving people problems, and you have a group of teenagers that are easy prey to the professional troublemakers.

That is the next ingredient, the professional troublemakers. You find them on every campus either as students or as persons from off-campus who have just come to help the students resolve some of their problems. You will find them involved in every act of violence, every disturbance.

Who are they? A very few will be professional dedicated Communists who know exactly what they are doing. They are highly trained, motivated and are carrying out preconceived plans to disrupt the campus and all parts of the educational and governmental machine.

Alongside the Communists, you will have a few professional revolutionaries — a few hate-filled, dedicated extremists — who couldn't care less about communism.

But, they are headed in the same direction as the Communists. They want to destroy our governmental and educational system. They regard our society as a racist society and they argue that it can't be changed, only destroyed.

(Next week: Dist. Atty. Younger will answer additional questions concerning violence and education.)
